

On Thursday, February 5, 2015, I was sitting at information station 7. At about 10 am I could hear arguing between Mario Capogrossa & a male Motorist who was later identified as Paul Perez. At this point they had been by the same what sectioned off seating area on the opposite side of the wall to ~~the~~ information station 1. I wasn't able to see Mr. Capogrossa but Mr. Perez was standing a couple of feet back from that seating area. In a clear & hostile tone Mr. Capogrossa said to the Motorist, to take this outside. Originally the Motorist began following, he had even taken off his jacket & swinging it onto a stanchion, but only got about halfway before he stopped himself, turned around, picked up his jacket & placed himself on the information line. Mr. Capogrossa did not; he kept walking to the door, when he looked back & saw that Mr. Perez was no longer following him & was now on line 1, Mr. Capogrossa went back to where he originally was, by that seating area. Apparently Mr. Capogrossa once again began trying to antagonize Mr. Perez because Mr. Perez began responding to him. At this point I called next.

When Mr. Perez came to me he handed me his ID and I pulled him up to see what was going on. It had been found guilty on a few tickets on January 21, when he said Mr. Capogrossa represented him, & unfortunately the two weeks given to pay had passed & now Mr. Perez is suspended. I had printed out the bill with the breakdown of the amount owed. He was saying that he wanted to speak to the judge & how it isn't right. Melanie had come out during the confrontation & she as well was trying to explain the procedure to him. Meanwhile Mr. Capogrossa had gotten on the information line & Roy, who was at information station 9, had called next & was trying to help him. About this same time Melanie had went into the back office to do or check on something, & I remained with the Notorist for a few more minutes before he had taken the information we provided & walked away.

As Mr. Perez was leaving Sgt. Graysman began walking over to me. I was beginning to tell him what had happened while watching Mr. Perez walk out the door & Mr. Capogrosso walk over to the door. He stood at it for a moment, Jeffrey Meyers, who was standing to his right against the colum next to the door closest to the attorney room said something to him as he stared through the glass & within that moment he proceeded through both sets of doors & outside. Sgt. Graysman, seeing this, quickly reacted by going towards the doors, but luckily it did not go any further & Mr. Capogrosso came back in.

About 45 mins later Mr. Perez returned, he was still upset but wanted to pay what he owed, as well as, wanting to better understand the appeal process because he also had a pending suspension put in place by the judge on the day of the hearing. Once again Melanie came out & we both assisted him. It was during this period that the Notorist wrote his statement on what had occurred.

*Tanya
Melissa Vergara*